

WMP Songlist (for you to edit)

We're both honored and excited to be a part of your big day! To help give us an idea of your musical tastes, we're providing you with this list of songs that could potentially be played at your reception. When you get the chance, go through the list and edit it as described with numbers and x's. The idea isn't so much to pick the 40 songs or so that would be played that night as it is to give us an idea of your musical tastes.

Sometime before your wedding, after you've edited this, either scan and email back or mail this to; Jim DiDomenico, 476 Mooresfield St., Elgin, IL 60124.

Bride and Groom: _____ Wedding Date: _____

If you have decided upon your "Special" dances, please list them here. If not, no worries, we'll figure that out soon enough. If you'll not be doing one or more of these just note "n/a".

Edit your songlist using a number and X system. Basically, if you have no strong opinion on a song leave it blank. If you like the song put a 1 in the first column. Songs you really like get a 2. A song that you must hear at your reception would get a 3. Only the songs that you absolutely don't want to hear get an X. How it then works, is that we take your list and compile a master sheet that we have on stage and play off of. We play your songs and fill in the blanks with the songs we know are "home runs" that you haven't put an X by. The songs are listed alphabetically within musical categories.

Here is a basic example

/ x	Songs	Artist
	Amsterdam (not bad, but no strong opinion)	Guster
1	Crazy Little Thing (we like this one)	Queen
2	You Are the Best Thing (we like this one a lot)	Ray Lamontagne
3	Once in a Lifetime (LOVE IT! Gotta hear it!)	Talking Heads
X	Hooked on a Feeling (seriously, check this out on YouTube)	David Hasselhof

If you need help with special dance (1st - Father/Daughter - Mother/Son) suggestions, the song titles listed in Red are songs we've done in the past for these occasions.

Our Redneck Medley is a fun “tongue in cheek” medley of songs like “the Gambler, Devil Went down to GA, Duelin Banjos, etc. that we typically reserve for later in the evening and it typically gets pretty “silly” on the dance floor. Either way is good by us though.

Would you like us to do the Redneck Medley?

Yes _____ No _____ Maybe, let's play it by ear _____

Our Anniversary Dance is something we do (typically about an hour into the performance) where we ask all married couples to join you on the dance floor. We then play a classic slower dance song. After a minute or so we thank all couples that have been married less than 5 years, and then we politely ask them to leave the dance floor. Shortly after that, we ask all couples married less than 10 years to please have a seat. So on and so on until there's only one couple left standing. This couple is then recognized as what marriage is all about. It provides a nice photo opportunity with the youngest couple and the oldest couple. For a variety of reasons, it's not for everyone. However, if it works for you, it's usually a really nice moment.

Would you like us to do the Anniversary Dance?

Yes _____ No _____ Maybe, let's play it by ear _____
